DETAILS OF REFUSAL OF OMITTED INVENTOR TO SIGN APPLICATION PAPERS

During the week of March 12, 2001, I presented Larry T. Riggs with the above noted application papers (specification, including claims, drawings, and declaration) for review and for his signature. At that time he stated that he would not sign the declaration document. He refused to sign based on his stated belief that the "forms were inappropriate."

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
